

Camp Kennedy Camper Agreement

I understand:

1. That Camp Kennedy requires self-discipline and hard work.
2. That the programs are based on group experiences and all campers must participate in all activities.
3. That the schedules, trips and other activities require my cooperation. Therefore, I will be responsible and abide by the group's schedule and all other aspects of the program.
4. That this is an intense group and personal growth experience and I will give 150% in both my efforts and my attitude. I will also take care of myself mentally, physically and emotionally.
5. That I must do my share of all daily chores, including getting water, cooking, cleaning, sweeping the bus, disposing of garbage, and other activities that are essential to group living in the outdoors.
6. That I will use good & safe judgment and abide by any request of the staff at all times. If I disagree with decisions, requests or demands, I will wait until the group is safe before expressing my personal views.
7. That radios, tape, cd, MP3 players and other anti-social devices (aka: gameboys), etc., will not be brought to camp, as they tend to detract from the group and outdoor experience which are the heart of the program. Also, no watches, clocks or other time pieces are allowed. Additionally, no make-up, blow dryers, expensive dress clothes or jewelry should be brought on this program.
8. That possession or use of any illegal substance, as well as alcoholic beverages and cigarettes, as well as shoplifting, vandalism or inappropriate sexual behavior will result in my being dismissed from the program and sent home at my parent's expense.
9. I am aware that though these programs are physically demanding, many others have met these challenges and felt better for having done so. The programs require a will to reach beyond myself, rather than simply being in shape. I must be ready to push myself physically, mentally and emotionally.

I have read the above and accept all of the conditions stated.
